French Disarming Proposal Made Public

PLAN TO BE PRESENTED AT GENEVA

United States Called Upon to Join in Guaranteeing Security of Nations AFFECTS ALL NATIONS

Chamber Accepts Plan and Gives Premier Herriot Confidence Vote Later

PARIS, Oct. 29.—(UP)—An elaborate French plan for arms reduction, vitally affecting the military strength of all countries and calling on the United States to join in guaranteeing the security of nations from attack, was before the world today. The French plan, most detailed and elaborate yet offered, will be presented for consideration of the world arms conference at Geneva, probably within a week.

It was outlined to the chamber of deputies by Premier Edouard Herriot last night and accepted, the chamber voting confidence in Herriot by 430 to 20 before adjourning early today.

Under the plan, France offers to reduce its terms of compulsory military service from 12 to nine months and the number of army divisions from 20 to 12, under the following six conditions:

- 1.—All armies should be on a militia basis and military organizations such as the German Reichswehr, or regular army should be dissolved, while interior police forces should be subject to international rules.

- 2.—International control should be organized, so as to admit the right of investigation of a country's forces.
- 3.—To complete the Locarno peace pacts, regional pacts of mutual assistance should be concluded, providing for a collective force of sufficient strength to suppress aggression.

The force should be composed of national contingents equipped with adequately powerful material.

REPORTS HOOVER TO END CAMPAIGN HERE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The San Francisco News said today it had learned that President Hoover expects to make the final speech of his campaign from his home on the campus of Stanford University at Palo Alto.

Servants in the Hoover home admitted that radio equipment was broadcast the speech would be installed in the home today, the News said.

"As yet, we have had no definite instructions for housing the score of secret service men and secretaries," the newspaper quoted Mrs. Ruth Powell, housekeeper at the home, as saying.

Warned by other servants to "keep quiet," the story said the housekeeper slammed the door in the reporter's face.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE RAPS SMITH'S PLAN

Challenges Proposal for Settlement of Prohibition Question

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Anti-Saloon league leaders today challenged the possibility of the prohibition dispute along lines suggested by former Governor Alfred E. Smith or by Rep. James M. Beck, Republican, Pennsylvania. Smith suggested amendment of the Volstead act to exempt all malt liquors from its one half of one percent limitation. Beck suggested prohibition question by simply refusing to appropriate funds for enforcement.

"There is no possibility of handling the malt question in that manner," Dr. F. Scott McBride, Anti-Saloon league superintendent told the United Press. "Perhaps Congress may defeat or thwart amendment but it would not do so."

"The Beck proposal would be poor sportsmanship. Of course the wets are not very good sports but that kind of thing would react powerfully against them."

The legal department of the league cited a more specific argument in the decision of the United States Supreme court in the so-called national prohibition cases in 1920.

"The decision of the court was cited to the effect that the declaration that congress and the states shall have concurrent enforcement power does not mean that either may defeat or thwart enforcement. The anti-saloon league argument is that under the interpretation of the Volstead act would be practically impossible."

Eminent lawyers have expressed the opinion that in wire tapping and search and seizure cases the supreme court has almost gone out of its way to uphold prohibition. Former Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes in prohibition decisions has on occasion used the phrase "the will of the people." And several court decisions may have been based upon an interpretation of the popular will in favor of making the country "bone dry."

OFFER TO PURCHASE OIL FIRM IS HEARD

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—An offer from the Standard Oil Company of California to purchase the defunct Richfield Oil company for $22,500,000, was under consideration of several of the receiver-ship committees today.

The offer, representing a $5,000,000 increase over Standard's original bid, was submitted to the Richfield bank creditors' committee, which approved it, subject to ratification of the bondholders' and trade creditors' committee.

The last two committees have already approved an offer of the Consolidated Oil Corporation, a Sinclair organization, but will study the new proposition. Standard's bid approximately matched that of Consolidated but varied somewhat in detail.

PRISON GUARD GETS 20 YEAR SENTENCE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 29.—(UP)—Capt. George W. Courson, former convict prison camp guard, today was sentenced to 20 years in prison on his recent conviction on a charge of manslaughter in the death of a young convict in a "sweat box."

Sentence was pronounced by Judge George Cooper Gibbs, the trial judge, after motion for a new trial, filed in behalf of Courson by his attorney, C. A. Avriett, was denied.

Progressivism Becomes Issue in Presidential Campaign in State

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Progressivism, for 20 years a principle upon which public careers were made or crushed in California, today became a paramount issue of the presidential campaign in President Hoover's home state.

United States Senator Hiram Johnson, throwing his full fighting power behind the campaign of a Democratic candidate for the first time in his long career, pushed the issue to the fore last night in an attack upon the administration.

Seldom in California has a candidate been so bitterly and sweepingly criticized as was Mr. Hoover when the white haired warrior of the progressive wing of Republicanism pleaded for the rank and file.

FALL RESULTS IN DEATH

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—A five story fall from a room in a downtown hotel caused the instant death here today of James E. Burns, 41, Monrovia rancher.

Police investigation led to the belief that Burns had been set adrift by a cigarette when he fell asleep and that, overcome by smoke, he groped for a window, lost his balance and toppled out.

Officers said also that Burns had been despondent since the recent death of his wife.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

SAN DIEGO—Oct. 29.—Santa Ana was leading San Diego high school 6 to 0 in the first period at the stadium here. San Diego kicked off and Santa Ana took the ball from their own 34-yard line and by a series of straight line plunges took the ball to San Diego's 7-yard line, from which point Montgomery took the ball over the line for a touchdown. Nos missed the conversion attempt.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—(UP)—University of Pittsburgh, conceded scarcely a chance to defeat Notre Dame, downed the Irish Ramblers 12-0, here today to check their march toward a national football championship. Pitt scored a 40-yard run and an intercepted pass.

350 Cities In State To Get Relief

Measure Submitted by Senator Harper to Legislative Council

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 29.—(INS)—Out of the crowning list of tax relief measures prepared for introduction at the next legislature came a proposal today to relieve the street assessment burden of taxpayers in incorporated California cities.

Bringing direct aid to home and property owners in 350 smaller incorporated cities, as well as large municipalities, a bill providing that 25 per cent of county gasoline tax revenues be allotted for street work in cities was announced by Senator William E. Harper of San Diego.

Senator Harper submitted his measure today to the legislative council bureau at the Capitol for preparation into legal form for submission to the legislature.

"Under this measure, county supervisors, after receiving their county share of the three-cent gasoline tax revenue, would set aside 25 per cent to be expended for street and road work in cities," Senator Harper announced.

"The share of the cities in the counties would be based on voting registration."

The state constitution now prohibits the state from expending state funds in cities, so the Harper bill stipulates that county supervisors, in making their 25 per cent allotment, also supervise this expenditure on city streets in accordance with a program mapped out by the municipalities.

Sponsors of the Harper measure pointed out that city taxpayers now receive no benefit in street or road improvements inside of the city limits of their municipalities from the $40,000,000 annual gas tax revenue.

"This is an honest effort to help city taxpayers in bearing the burden of special assessments and bond issues for street work," Senator Harper declared.

Senator Harper hopes for favorable action in the senate on this measure, while the assembly, which is dominated by representatives from cities, is expected to give favorable consideration for urban relief from street and road taxes.

The California League of Municipalities, at a recent San Diego convention, went on record as favoring a measure similar to the Harper bill. The league proposal, however, specified that the 25 per cent allocation be expended only on arterial roads through cities and linking up city streets with the state highway system. Senator Harper's measure provides that these funds be used on all city streets.

SON SLAYER DRAWS LIFE IMPRISONMENT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Life imprisonment was the fate today of John Roberts, 72 year old contractor, who was adjudged sane last night by the same jury that a few days earlier had convicted him of first degree murder in the death of his son, Earle Lee Roberts, realtor.

The jury recommended leniency, making life imprisonment mandatory. The elder Roberts admitted shooting his son last July as the climax to a long business feud but claimed self defense and temporary insanity.

Monster Protest Meeting in Hyde Park Tomorrow Will Be Under Guard

TO ADDRESS COMMONS

Representatives Today Deliver Letter to Prime Minister Asking Help

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The army of hunger marchers which invaded London this week to protest against restrictions on unemployment relief urged the government today to act in their behalf.

A delegation will seek to plead the marchers' case in the house of commons next week.

It also was announced that, in addition to small borough demonstrations today, a monster protest meeting will be held at Trafalgar Square tomorrow, when more than 100,000 are expected to participate. The meeting will be similar to that in Hyde Park, which led to rioting in which 77 were injured.

Four representatives of the barchers from all parts of the country delivered a letter at the residence of Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald. It was addressed to the speaker of the house of commons and urged:

- 1.—Public inquiry into the Hyde Park rioting.
- 2.—Immediate release of those arrested at Hyde Park.
- 3.—Abolition of the so-called "means test."
- 4.—Restoration of unemployment benefits which have been cut.

SAYS WILSON PLAN WAS TO QUIT POST

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(UP)—President Wilson, during this last campaign, planned, if defeated, to resign and put his opponent, Charles Evans Hughes, to the post of secretary of state in event the Republicans won. Then the president and vice president would have resigned, automatically placing the secretary of state in the presidency.

The plan, he told the United Press, was to prevent the customary delay between the date of election and the date of inauguration of the president on March 4 when, in time of crisis, might delay and handicap the government.

Tumulty said Mr. Wilson proposed to appoint his opponent, Charles Evans Hughes, to the post of secretary of state in event the Republicans won. Then the president and vice president would have resigned, automatically placing the secretary of state in the presidency.

CHICAGO POST IS ABSORBED BY NEWS

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Col. Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily News, today announced purchase of the Chicago Evening Post, and its merger with the News, effective Monday.

The Post, established 43 years ago, loses its identity in the merger, but K. L. Ames, Jr., the publisher, joins the Daily News organization as assistant to Col. Knox, according to the joint announcement on the first page of the News today.

An editorial in today's issue of the News commented on the merger and revealed certain editorial features of the Post would be transferred to the News, among them the special editorial articles of Walter Lippmann.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(To the Editor of The Register.) Had a fine trip in here today from Florida, over the beautiful country of Florida, Georgia, South and North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland and New Jersey. Was going to stop in Washington, but the newspaper boys said there wasn't a soul there. "Ain't Mr. Hoover here?" No, he has gone to save Indiana.

"Well, I know my old Injun friend, Charlie Curtis, is here." "No, he is saving Kansas." "Well then I will just drop up and see some of the boys in the Cabinet." "Why, there is none of the Cabinet that's been here since early in the spring." "Well, who is running the country?" "Why, nobody, that's why things are kinder picking up."

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Seize Imported Liquor Worth $5000 At San Clemente

OFFICERS JAIL MAN ON CHARGE OF POSSESSION

Raiding a residence on Cristobal street in San Clemente at 8 o'clock this morning, Chief of Police Harry Comber and Sergeant Earl Coleman seized 100 cases of fine imported liquors valued at $5000 and arrested a man found in the house.

The prisoner gave the name of William Eaton and said he lived in Los Angeles. He was booked on a charge of possession of liquor. He will have a hearing November 4.

The booze apparently had been taken off a rum running vessel within the past few days, some of the sacks still being damp and having particles of seaweed clinging to them.

Officers believe the liquor was brought to the residence after being landed on the beach nearby, the rum runners waiting a favorable opportunity before attempting to run their cargo to Los Angeles.

COUNTY MUSIC TEACHERS IN SESSION TODAY

Music teachers of Santa Ana and Orange county held a meeting in the Willard Junior High school building today, during which a program of demonstration lessons in music and an address by Miss Lavinia Lossing, of the University of California at Los Angeles, were featured.

The speaker addressed the group on the subject, "The Enrichment of Units of Work Through Music." The program was arranged by Mrs. Irene Schoepfle, supervisor of music in rural schools of the county, and Mrs. Frances Hunt Beeson, supervisor of music in Santa Ana schools.

Mrs. Edith M. Ritter, principal of Fremont school and Mrs. Sue Baxter sold tickets for the luncheon. Miss Helen Glancy arranged the table decorations and Mrs. Grace Lund chose students who acted as ushers and waitresses.

Exhibits of public school music materials were displayed on tables in the halls. They were loaned through the courtesy of the Morse Freeman Music company and the Southern California Music company of Los Angeles.

The Rhythm Band, Spurgeon school toy orchestra, directed by Maurie Hamill, instructor, presented a group of four numbers. A music reading was given by the fifth and sixth grades of the Kettle school under the direction of Edith Holsinger. A demonstration of a music appreciation lesson was given by the seventh grade of the Willard Junior High school under the direction of Esther Jean Davis.

James Harley demonstrated the possibilities of harmonica playing. Presentation of new material in singing was given by the eighth grade of the Huntington Beach school directed by Mrs. M. Maxwell.

Directed by Edith Cornell, the boys glee club of Lathrop junior high school accompanied by Dorothy Mayhew presented two selections just before the lunch hour.

FRENCH PLANS FOR DISARMING GIVEN PUBLIC

4.—The United States should accord the guarantees of security that it has already intimated it favored—(presumably through interpretation of the Briand Kellogg anti-war treaty.)

5.—States which are members of the league of nations should engage to fulfill all obligations under Article XVII of the Covenant. (Article XVII provides that all League members shall boycott any member which resorts to war in violation of its league engagements.)

6.—Arbitration should be obligatory on all nations adhering to the Covenant of the league.

The French plan thus emerges as being based on mutual assistance against an invader, with special pledges among European nations for such security against invasion. It looks toward the development of an international super-army, and for mutual consultation before war is started. The latter provision especially affects the United States. Herriot predicted the French delegates would go to Geneva hopeful of results. His expected meeting with Norman Davis, United States arms delegate, did not materialize, Davis having left last night for Geneva without an opportunity of seeing the premier.

BWARE—HESSIAN FLY
WASHINGTON—The Hessian fly, deadly enemy of wheat farmers, threatens to injure materially the 1933 wheat crop. Dr. L. L. Linsley, of the Department of Agriculture, says that the secret of the Hessian fly control is to time the planting so that the young plants do not come up until the adult flies have left the seeds.

INSTRUMENTS OF DEATH

Here is the iron bar used to murder Manus Gantman, Santa Ana merchant, last Monday, as he stood behind the counter of his store at 310 East Fourth street. The size of the bar can be determined by comparison with the hammer, which is of ordinary size. The lower picture shows the hammer head in which is a small hole, and police officers here are seeking a person who has ever seen this hammer, believing it could easily be identified because of the hole. The hole is almost directly in the center, and is about one-quarter inch deep. On the handle of the hammer also is a disfigurement, which resembles the letter "E." The picture shows that one end of the iron bar had been sawed off.

HIRAM JOHNSON FLAYS HOOVER IN FIRST TALK

file of the party to vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt for president.

"Pilot of a shipwreck," "author of false and fanciful tales of alarm," "as president he has written himself a failure," in such biting phrases, Senator Johnson charged to President Hoover's administration responsibility for alleged lack of farm relief, continued unemployment, existing human misery, American investment in foreign securities of doubtful value, and business stagnation.

Johnson accused the president of "facing both ways" on prohibition, and praised Roosevelt's stand as "clean out." Eviction of the bonus army from Washington was classified as "cruel and cowardly." The senator attacked reconstruction finance corporation loans to huge private enterprises and charged the administration with showing too little concern for "those at the bottom." The coratorium on foreign debts was criticized.

Mr. Hoover's Des Moines assertion that at one time the nation was within two weeks of being forced from the gold standard was derided by Johnson as "a fanciful tale."

The senator, marshalling into the one address all the opposition to the president he had displayed during the past four years, pointed to no specific legislative or executive program to remedy the national conditions he described. Instead, he stressed only one principle—the one on which his entire political life has been predicated—progressivism. Governor Roosevelt, he said, is a progressive, President Hoover is not. A change in the entire philosophy of government, rather than specific points of a program, was demanded.

"One candidate represents the divine right of big business, of international bankers and of great corporations to maintain, operate and conduct our government, and the other, the right of all the people, high and low, big and little, rich and poor alike, to share in the blessing of government, and to participate, if bounty be extended, in its benefits," Johnson said.

His praise for the Democratic nominee was as warm as his criticism of Mr. Hoover was bitter.

"Governor Roosevelt speaks in understanding sympathy the hopes and the rights of common, ordinary, everyday citizens," the senator said. "He voices the old, never-changeable progressive policies upon which this government was founded."

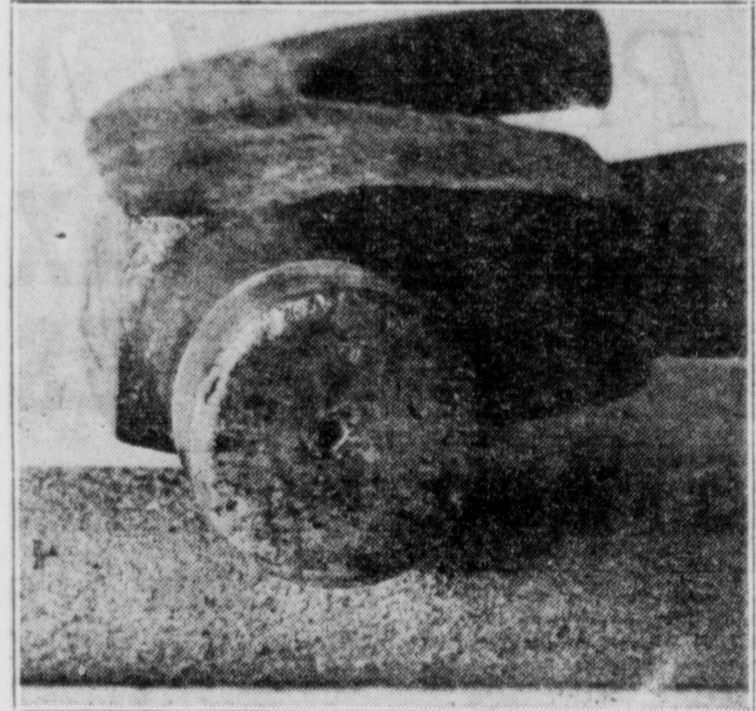

"No campaign since 1912 has given me greater joy than this." Thousands shouted approval within Dreamland auditorium and other hundreds standing outside heard by means of loudspeakers, while Johnson attacked "predatory interests" with all the vigor he displayed in 1912, when, as vice presidential candidate on Theodore Roosevelt's Bull Moose ticket, he last led a crusade as intense as the one he launched last night.

"Swift and certain has been the embrace of Mr. Hoover's administration of big interests whenever they have clashed with just ordinary humanity," he declared. "After cold calculation, he selected his political party in 1920 because it was dominant and stronger. He has chosen when conflict arise, the richer and more powerful side. He has naturally gravitated to the Mellons and the international bankers and the power trust."

"When a miracle man falls and a mystery man explodes, instinctively we turn to one who knows and understands and feels with us. In this campaign, such a man is Franklin D. Roosevelt. He's no miracle man, or mystery man. He's just an American."

Scornfully, the senator rebuked one-time followers who refused to join him in his campaign for the rival party's nominee. He turned to an attack on "regulars."

"The angry cry of party regularity from those who prate of party but mean special privilege, who use blind partisanship for their own profit and aggrandizement, neither frightens nor halts progressive Republicans in this memorable contest," he said. Upon whether the enthusiasm of the meeting will spread to the rank and file of the voters, observers believed, depends Roosevelt's fate in this state. Johnson must make serious inroads on registered Republican strength to turn enough of the Republican majority of about 500,000 registered voters to the Democratic nominee.

HOOVER MAKES DIRECT ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT

ty expressed themselves today as enthusiastic over the effect of Mr. Hoover's speech, in which he scathingly criticized Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's economic program, before a cheering audience of 22,000.

Leaving Indianapolis at 10:27 p. m., Mr. Hoover's schedule provided for the following brief stops today: Parkersburg, W. Va., at 7:05 a. m.; Clarksville, W. Va., at 9:10 a. m.; Grifton, at 9:55 a. m.; Oakland, Md., at 11:21 a. m.; Piedmont, W. Va., at 12:10 a. m.; Keyser, W. Va., at 12:23 p. m.; Martinsburg, W. Va., at 2:15 p. m. He was to arrive in Washington at 4 p. m.

The president had reserved some of his most spectacular bombardment of the Democratic position for his Indianapolis appearance, although he was compelled to share some of the political spotlight in the Indiana capital with one of the leading Democratic speakers, Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, who spoke to a large audience in another part of the city shortly after Mr. Hoover had finished his speech at the Field hall of Butler university.

Direct Attack
Mr. Hoover's address, frequently interrupted by cries of "Go to it, Herbie!" provided the most direct attack upon his opponent yet made by the Republican nominee.

The president said that Governor Roosevelt was guilty of "violation of the truth," of making "atrocious charges" of "swindlers" of a "shuffle" on the tariff question instead of a "new deal."

One of the outstanding declarations in the document dealt with Governor Roosevelt's recent reference to the supreme court and what he termed "Republican control" over it.

"Does that statement," the president asked, "express his intention to attempt to reduce that tribunal to an instrument of party policy and political action for sustaining such doctrines as he may bring with him?"

He summed up his plea for return to office in these words:

"The fundamental issue in this campaign, the decision that will fix the national direction for 100 years to come, is whether we shall go on in fidelity to the American traditions, or whether we shall turn to innovations, the spirit of which is disclosed to us by many sinister revelations and veiled promises."

Gov. Roosevelt's tariff theories were the subject of a considerable part of the speech.

Shift in Position
"He now announces," the president said, "within two weeks of the election, that he does not propose to reduce tariffs on farm products. This is the most startling shift in position by a presidential candidate in the midst of a political campaign in all recent political history. What would Grover Cleveland or Woodrow Wilson say to such a shift? Does the governor realize that he has overnight thrown overboard the great historical position of his party? That he has rewritten the Democratic platform? That he must withdraw half of the speeches in which he denounced the Hawley-Smoot act as the origin of this world calamity?"

ommendations" for regulation of interstate power.

"I have opposed and will continue to oppose," he said, "the federal government going into the power business. The Democratic candidate says he will preserve the great water powers for the people. That is already provided by the law since 1920, and it therefore presents no difficulty to vigorous campaign promises."

The president struck at his opponent's declarations regarding foreign loans, and challenged their sincerity with the charge that Roosevelt had been engaged in the business of floating such loans with the American people.

Mr. Hoover challenged his opponent to disavow "the bill passed by the Democratic house of representatives under the leadership of the Democratic candidate for vice president" to issue $2,300,000,000 of greenback currency.

Promises to Veterans
"I have stated," he said, "that I do not favor the prepayment of the soldier bonus of $2,300,000,000. Of one thing I will assure the veterans, and that is that when they are paid it will be in real money."

Mr. Hoover listed 14 points on which his administration, he said, had offered remedies for the depression. These included his attempts to persuade employers to maintain wages; his plan for division of existing work; his requests to state, county and municipal governments to cooperate with the federal government in creating employment on public construction projects; mobilization of the people for charity drives and direct aid to the needy; the increase in public works; appropriations for relief to farmers in drought stricken areas; the war debts moratorium; organization of the national credit corporation; creation of the home loan bank system; prevention of mortgage foreclosures; and sustention of the credit of the federal government.

Regarding economy, the President said, "we have listened to much prattle from the opposition about reducing government expenses. Having a record of earnest performance, I naturally exposed their insincerity upon this question at Detroit."

"If I receive a mandate from the American people in this election, I shall be able not only to force upon this Democratic house real economies, but also be able to stop further raids by the Democratic party on the treasury of the United States."

GOVERNOR ORDERS OIL INVESTIGATION

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 29.—(UP)—Governor Rolph today called for a state investigation by Attorney General U. S. Webb and Rolland A. Vandegriff, director of finance, into charges that an illegal lease had been entered into by the city of Huntington Beach and the Pacific Exploration company of beach lands at Huntington Beach.

The action was taken at the request of William May Garland of Los Angeles, who charged the lease was signed without competitive bidding, that one-twelfth of the oil goes to the state, and that the promoters and Huntington Beach get the rest.

Picnics and Reunions

PENNSYLVANIA
Former residents of the Keystone state are invited to a great picnic all day Saturday, November 5, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles. There will be county registers and headquarters so all can find the old neighbors. There will be a brief program, starting about two o'clock, but the main purpose will be to have a good time and to meet friends from all over Southern California.

ASK PUBLIC TO HELP IDENTIFY DEATH TOOLS

Santa Ana police today appealed to the public to aid them in identifying the ownership of a hammer and an iron bar, found near the body of Manus Gantman, who was murdered in his East Fourth street store last Monday.

Pictures are carried on this page today at request of the police of the two weapons which were evidently left behind by the murderer. The iron bar was used by the murderer and Gantman was struck four times with it. The hammer was found nearby, but had not been used, in the crime, police say. Both were taken into the store by the murderers of the merchant, they believe.

Because the face of the hammer-head has had a hole bored into it one quarter of an inch deep, police believe there may have been someone who will be able to identify the hammer because of this peculiarity. On the handle there is a disfigurement which resembles the letter "E."

With the murder one week old at noon Monday, police are still baffled as to the motive and Chief of Police F. W. Howard declared today that little progress had been made in finding the murderers.

THIEF STEALS DIAMOND RING THROUGH RUSE

A diamond ring, worth $200, together with a purse with $3 in it, was stolen yesterday afternoon from the home of Mrs. Mable Styling, at 1318 North Main street, by the partner of a smooth talking well dressed man, who called at the house apparently to rent a room.

While he was looking at rooms on the second floor, police believe a confederate entered the house, ransacked Mrs. Styling's room, and stole the valuables. Mrs. Styling reported that her door bell rang and when she answered it, found a well dressed man at the door, who asked to look at a room for himself and a friend. She showed him a room on the first floor, but he insisted on an upstairs room. After the top floor had been shown, the man left, stating he would locate his friend and return.

After he had gone, Mrs. Styling found that while they were upstairs, the "friend" evidently had ransacked her room.

President Lauded At Dinner Of County Engineers

HOOVER MAN OF FACTS, ACTION, SAYS SPEAKER

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Personal contacts with Hoover, the speaker, was the topic discussed by Robert Lenton, well known Southern California engineer, in a talk given last night at the Orange Women's clubhouse, when the Orange County Engineers' club and the Engineers' Hoover club held a joint dinner meeting. M. M. Thompson, president and C. C. Bonebrake, city engineer of Orange, were program chairman.

Hoover's ability as an engineer and as an executive was brought out by Lenton, who described the president as serious, not always tactful, sometimes abrupt but never inconsiderate. Hoover, said Lenton, wants facts and nothing but facts in considering problems. He said he has never known a man who so quickly can select essentials and reject non-essentials. A man of action with a genius for organization, with a remarkable ability for selecting men for the right places, has made big men working with Hoover enthusiastic in his support, said the speaker. The way Hoover handled great emergencies such as the safety of Americans in the Boxer rebellion, the Belgian food distribution and the relief of American soldiers in Europe when the World's war began, has never been criticized, Lenton pointed out.

Absolutely sincere, Hoover has an abhorrence of sham or pretense and never does things for effect, Lenton declared, as he told how this stand of the president had brought criticism from his political associates.

"We should be thankful," said Lenton, "that in a time of grave emergency we have had as a president a man who has worked on the problem not for political effect but for the good of the people. Hoover is sharing the fate of Lincoln, Grant and Cleveland. These men thought independently and were censured by those who did not understand."

Those who have lived under foreign flags will know how to discount the charge that Hoover lacked patriotism, said the speaker as he told of the intense love for country which is felt by those compelled to live in other lands than their own.

It is inconsistent that the American people should fail to entrust to Hoover the task of completing the shattered economic structure of the country, Lenton said in closing.

Mrs. Paul Bailey, president of the Women's auxiliary of the Engineers' Hoover club, was introduced.

Head said the trust deed measure had been hurriedly prepared and was full of jokers. A general idea was entertained, he said, that the measure was for the relief of those owning money when as a matter of fact it was nothing of the sort, but it passed would be the means of litigation and trouble. The present trust deed law would undoubtedly be amended at the present legislature, he declared. Head spoke especially on the need of voting "No" on Nos. 1 and 2.

REPORTS GIVEN AT SESSION OF WELFARE BODY

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—The history of the organization of the Orange Community Welfare board was outlined yesterday at a meeting of the organization at the Legion hall by Mrs. Robert B. Johnson, secretary. The work was begun March 2, 1927, with 18 organizations represented and now has representatives from 34 organizations of the city. A welfare worker was first employed in 1928 and the city began paying the salary of the worker in 1931, it was brought out.

Mrs. A. Haven Smith asked that the dates of November 19, 20 and 21 be set aside for the annual Red Cross drive and the request was granted. Ross Stuckey suggested that the fact be made public that goods received at the welfare store which donors wish to be given away to those in need, are segregated from those which may be either sold for small sums or given away. Many persons, it was brought out, wish to do work for articles or to pay small sums for them, but if they are unable to do so articles in the store will be given them without charge.

Mrs. Lillian Wettenman reported that 1575 sacks of flour had been given away since April 25 through the Red Cross. She also presented a report of the activities for the month of October and stated that 285 men had been given food, 22 families given grocery orders and eight men and three women found work. Wood sold brought $13.15. W. F. Crist, treasurer, reported the sum of $227.52 in the treasury. The advisory committee, Mrs. V. A. Rosetter, Mrs. H. O. Ehlen and Mrs. Robert B. Johnson will draw up a set of by-laws and a constitution which will be brought before the board at the next meeting.

Merced Woman Class Speaker

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Concluding meetings for this year, with plans to convene again in January, members of the Whatsoever class of the First Presbyterian church met on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. Mary K. Botters, of Merced, was the speaker with "Christian Service" as her topic.

Piano and vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Agnes Pister and Mrs. Ethel Clark and the Misses Eldene Watson, Melba Estes and Armysta Sue Davis. Mrs. Dubraka gave readings.

Hostesses for the day were Mesdames L. A. Durler, I. H. Myers, Florence Beale, Jennie Skuse, Perry Helkes and Hendricks. They served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

LEADER ASKS ENDEAVOR TO BACK HOOVER

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—The Rev. Paul Brown, former state president of the California Christian Endeavor Union, last night at the semi-annual meeting of the County Christian Endeavor, outlined activities of the organization in an interesting talk given at the First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Mr. Brown declared that he believed the election of Herbert Hoover would be the best thing to safeguard the gains made by the union in the past years. He went on to relate the Christian Endeavor work that the president did as a boy. Mr. Hoover organized a branch in his city, and they held meetings regularly under his supervision, he said.

Dr. Daniel Poling, a friend of the speaker, and one of the principal leaders in Endeavor work, is now covering United States by airplane. It was said. This tour will extend over a period of six weeks, over 200 speeches being given in the interest of Mr. Hoover as the next president. Dr. Poling is a personal friend of Hoover, and has known him a good many years, the speaker related.

Mr. Brown mentioned a state convention will be held at Long Beach the last of June. This convention will be followed by "Play" A. A. steamer will be chartered and the boys and girls will take a trip to the isthmus of Catalina where the play day will be held. A crowd of 4000 or 5000 is expected.

The business of the evening was presided over by Miss Edith Culter. The business consisted of the election of Herbert Rankin to the office of vice president. Symphaty was extended to him for the death of his mother last week. A motion was passed that $20 should be voted to buy an organ for use in the county hospital work, as the one they had been using is now in the Santa Ana jail.

Miss L. Miller gave a report stating there will be a junior rally at the Anaheim Presbyterian church November 20 at 3 p. m. The president, Miss Edith Culter, made an announcement that Dr. Poling will be a speaker at the Long Beach Civic auditorium, November 8. He will speak in the interest of prohibition.

Songs were led by Miss Mabel Culter, with Verne Estes giving a rendition of "The Stranger of Galilee." He was accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Carl Pister. Tea was served at the close of the meeting.

Honor Society of School Selects Leaders for Year

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Phillip Infort was elected president of the Honor society of the Orange Union high school at a recent meeting of the organization. Other officers chosen were, vice president, Miss Marie Fischer; secretary, Miss Helen Volharding, and publicity chairman, Nelson Kogler. George Stoner is the advisor of the group.

The society is expecting to take a trip of some sort shortly.

PAST GRANDS PLAN TO ASSIST NEEDY

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Carrying out all details of their meeting yesterday afternoon in keeping with a Halloween theme, members of Past Noble Grands' association of Rebekah lodge met in I. O. O. F. hall. Hostesses were Mesdames Nina Dale, Madge Christiansen and Anna Wood.

During a short business session, in charge of the president, Mrs. Edna Cavett, plans were made for preparing boxes for the community's needy at Christmas time. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon, with Mesdames Alice Shell and Lucy Richards winning prizes. Bright yellow cosmos provided floral decorations for refreshments of pumpkin pie and whipped cream, served on individual trays appointed with Halloween nut cups, napkins and other decorative features.

Hostesses at the next meeting will be Mesdames Ida Campbell, Gerlie Fields, Louise Biddlingmeyer and Dolores Goodwin. Those present were Miss Nora Edwards and Mesdames Madge Christiansen, Nina Dale, Edna Cavett, Fanny Barker, Lucy Richards, Mary Edwards, Alice Shell, Jane Chandler, Stella Prince, Edith Kneisel, Anna Christiansen, Gerlie Fields, Louise Biddlingmeyer, Clara Allen, Nettie Todhunter, Ida Campbell and the hostesses, Mesdames Dale, Madge Christiansen and Anna Wood, together with two special guests, Mrs. Meta Ragsdale and son, Donald.

WELFARE HEAD STARTS WORK NEXT TUESDAY

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Miss Grace Lentz, newly selected welfare worker for the community, was formally introduced to members of the Orange Community Welfare board at a luncheon at the American Legion hall yesterday.

Miss Lentz has been a resident of the community for a number of years and lives in El Modena, a part of the district covered by the activities of the Welfare board. She was in China for some time, being in charge of a training school for nurses. She is a registered nurse in California and received her training in the Methodist hospital in Los Angeles. While in Chicago she was connected with welfare work in the ghetto of that city.

The committee selecting Miss Lentz included Mrs. F. L. Chapline, the Rev. Franklin H. Minck and Ross Stuckey. She succeeds Miss Lillian Wettenman, who resigned the middle of the month. A number of reports of committees were given yesterday. A nominating committee including Samuel O. Hart, V. D. Johnson and Mrs. F. E. Hallman reported that they had been unable to secure a president to succeed W. W. Perry who tendered his resignation two weeks ago and who was elected to a second term of office last March, his term of office expiring next March.

L. F. Finley, who is acting as temporary chairman of the board, appointed a committee composed of Mrs. Robert B. Johnson and S. W. Wilson as a new nominating committee and asked them to secure the nomination of a president before the next board meeting November 25. Mr. Finley advised that the choice should not be limited to members of the board.

Mrs. W. O. Higgins Hostess To Club

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Members of the Aud Lang Syne Quilting club were guests of Mrs. W. O. Higgins yesterday in her home, 225 South Grand street. The day was spent in working on a quilt for the hostess. Small tables, brightened with Halloween nut cups and other black and orange appointments, were used in serving a delicious noon day luncheon. Yellow chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies were the flowers contributing to the decorative scheme.

Mrs. F. W. Taylor, of Medford, Ore., was a special guest of the day. Members attending were Mrs. Nettie Burling, Los Angeles; Mrs. Ellen Frick, Fullerton; Mrs. Bessie Crabley, Buena Park; Mrs. Hilma Curran, Anaheim; Mesdames Frank Higgins, Olive French, S. M. Higgins, Bessie Foster and the hostess, Mrs. W. O. Higgins.

The next meeting will be held November 9 in the home of Mrs. Burling in Los Angeles.

Boys Stage Stunts At "Y" Monday

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Plans have been completed for a stag Halloween party to be given at the Y.M.C.A. Monday night and all boys of the community are to be guests at what promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the year. J. B. Wilbur, secretary, is in charge and the committee recently appointed to carry out details for the party consists of Frank Hoag, chairman; Homer Davis, William Snodgrass, C. E. Wood, A. W. Wickersheim, Vern Estes and C. I. Thomas.

The program is to include boxing, wrestling, tumbling, novelty stunts and a movie. The party will open with a parade about the city and a $2 prize will be given for the best costume.

CONDUCT FUNERAL OF CHRIS KURLE

ORANGE, Oct. 28.—Funeral services for Chris Kurle, 81, were held Friday from the C. W. Coffey funeral chapel. The Rev. J. Alvin Shirley, pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, presided.

Jack Feather sang "Our Blessed Redeemer" and "Nearer My God to Thee" with Mrs. R. S. Frye accompanying.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. W. O. Higgins, 225 South Grand street.

Surviving him were his widow, Mrs. Marie Kurle, three daughters, Mrs. T. W. Burnette and Miss Mary Kurrie, of Orange, and Mrs. A. A. Hausman, of Colorado Springs, Colo., and five grandchildren.

'TITHING' IS DISCUSSED AS SOCIETY MEETS

EL MODENA, Oct. 28.—At the meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Friends church Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Lutz, of North Batavia street, Orange, Mrs. Helen Bowerman, of Montebello, spoke on "Tithing."

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. R. Jones, of Villa Park. Mrs. George Bartley and Mrs. Hervey Hadley were appointed as a committee from the society to meet with similar committees from the W.C.T.U. and P.T.A. for the teachers' reception to be held the evening of November 8.

It was voted to sponsor the plan of arranging for a dining room and kitchen at the church, using the Live Wire class room and part of the hall for the dining room.

Mrs. Robert Lingo was honored with a shower and many beautiful gifts were presented to her by members of the society. The hostess served delicious refreshments late in the afternoon, using a pink and green color scheme. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Lingo were Mrs. Helen Bowerman, of Montebello; Mrs. Clyde Roberts, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Oscar Stanfield, Mrs. Chester Stearns, Mrs. T. S. McCullum, and Mrs. M. Schaffert, of Orange; Mrs. Robert Lingo and baby, Mrs. Harry Skiles, Mrs. Frank Sondericker, Mrs. Luther Barnett, Mrs. Fred Mahoney, Mrs. Alma Lundblade, Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Joseph Bricke, Mrs. Humphries, Mrs. Beth Dollard, Mrs. George Bartley, Mrs. Hervey Hadley, Mrs. Winifred Haller, Mrs. Thomas Dickerson, Mrs. James C. Fisk, Mrs. Charles Gifford, all of El Modena; Mrs. C. L. McCollum and Mrs. L. R. Jones, of Villa Park.

5 DEFENDANTS, FACE COUNT, FOR FELONIES

Five men appeared yesterday before Judge James L. Allen, in superior court to answer felony charges filed against them by the district attorney.

John Peruchetti entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of assaulting his estranged wife Mrs. Mary Peruchetti "with intent to do her great bodily harm." Peruchetti demanded a jury trial which was scheduled for November 23. He is accused of having struck and bit his wife.

Mrs. Peruchetti has a plea for divorce against her husband on file in superior court awaiting trial. In her plea for a divorce she alleges that her husband treated her cruelly and on one occasion, after they were separated, invited her for an automobile ride and then struck her and attempted to take a ring off her hand.

Jesus Cornejo plead not guilty to a charge of attempted assault on an eight-year-old Orange girl, and demanded a jury trial. His trial was set for hearing November 10. Accused of entering the home of the Rev. R. Leisner, near Garden Grove on October 2, Barney Hultgren entered a plea of not guilty to a burglary charge and demanded a jury trial which was set for November 22.

James Martin and Norman Herzfeldt, two sailors from the U. S. S. California, accused of stealing the automobile of Dr. P. H. Shippen, of Long Beach, which they abandoned in Buena Park after burning out a bearing and later stealing an automobile in Santa Ana, pleaded guilty to two grand theft counts each and asked for probation. Hearing on their petition was set for November 4.

The Public Forum

Communications under this heading must be signed by the name of the writer. They are published at the discretion of the editors. The opinions expressed are those of the writers and may not be the opinions of The Register.

Editor, The Register:

It being only a limited time before election, I would like very much to drive one last nail in the coffin of the "wet" cause before it is lowered into its grave out of sight for at least four years anyway.

I would like to impress the danger on our young voters who are being fed upon the bootlegger and all kinds of "wet" trashy information. I appeal to you young voters and also older ones also vote for "dry" men for office. Vote a split ticket in doing so. I know one plan that would make all "wet" votes "dry."

The plan is as follows: Get a number of giant airplanes and herd all the "wets" aboard, that is large airplanes, that would include the "wet" class such as all the "wet" candidates and all their favorite bootleggers and also herd them several pilots to run their ships for them under the influence of liquor and their favorite brand anyway, give the bootleggers a whirl and they would be off and away. But no, there is a common sense and they are shouting for a vote on the matter. The passengers are all calling for a "dry" convention among themselves and are casting their votes to make the country dry and not half dry either, also to make certain that they nominate and elect "dry" officers and pilots to run their ships. They would also be absolutely dry too.

Now, my friends, I am sure that would be a practical solution of convincing the "wets" that they would certainly understand the seriousness of the old face they are so blatantly shouting nowadays. Liquor, the father and mother of 75 per cent of all crimes, with its inherited allies the bootlegger with all the "wet" propaganda with it. Now, my friends, Mr. Voter, do the clean thing and vote "no" on propositions number one and number two.

If you vote wrong on these two propositions, then the bootlegger will get all the rest of the off-scourings and dregs of the human race will flock to California. I may make some enemies but if the shoe fits then they will have to wear it, but decent people are certainly ashamed of such company. Any voter that is working for the best interest of California is voting "no" on number one and number two and putting in office "dry" men who will see to it that the bootlegger, the peddler of poison have some of his liberty that he has been shouting about taken away from him and give him plenty of liberty on the end of a good shovel on our Orange county roads.

Yours,
ED. HERTZBERG,

News Behind the News

WASHINGTON

OUTLOOK

Business appears to have little to fear or be thankful for in the political situation.

In a practical way there seems to be nothing in the cards that will influence trade, except psychologically.

The prospects are: TARIFF—No general revision in congress even if Roosevelt takes control. Will probably work through a revised tariff commission to effect readjustments. A long process.

PROHIBITION—Chances of beer in the spring are good with Roosevelt. Hoover probably will veto. Both sides will undertake repeal legislation which will take years.

REGULATION—Stricter regulation of public utilities appears to be certain no matter who wins. No other business regulation in sight.

FARM MORTGAGES—Remedial legislation will undoubtedly be enacted in short session.

F.R.C.—Will be continued if Democrats win.

FEDERAL RESERVE POLICY—Easy credit facilities will be continued without respect to politics.

INFLATION—Will be more strongly advocated in coming congress, but no chance for it to be enacted.

SOLDIER BONUS—Roosevelt's statement has put a crimp in American Legion plans. Democrats will try to work out a compromise, but nothing in prospect before midsummer if they win.

The developments affecting business after election will largely concern: War debts, world economic conference, disarmament, railway wages. Chances are only fair that these things will be ironed out. The election result will have very little to do with them.

The one concrete effect of a Roosevelt victory would be to delay action until he took office.

Business will have no trend until after elections. Some good news is in prospect. Also some not so good. The good probably will concern grain movement in the northwest, car loadings, bank credit and slightly increased steel production. Sour notes will be sounded on the European situation, commodity price slips and in textiles.

Those who run the automobile industry believe their prospects will be better shortly. There is the only major industry off since July in federal reserve board figures.

Yet they have weathered the hard times much better than any of the other major producers.

TAXES

The secret treasury estimate figures on the expected deficit is one and a quarter billions. This is probably far too much. Maintenance of business at existing levels would cut that figure in half by the end of the fiscal year. Better business would whittle it down to where it belongs.

Any estimates at this time are pure guesses.

That shows how futile is this budget balancing-economy battle between the candidates. Balance the budget is only a playful subterfuge anyway. The only object is to make the bankers believe the budget is balanced so the price of bonds will not be affected.

As a matter of fact our budget would be slightly awry today if you counted in the R.F.C. expenditures. Congress slyly left them out.

BREAK

The veterans hospitalization board displays lack of schooling in politics last week and drew a private reprimand from the White House.

The board permitted or failed to stop a poll of war veterans in Washington hospitals on the presidential elections. The poll showed 3 to 1 for Roosevelt. It was published in local newspapers.

What was not published was that the White House called up the board and advised it to stay out of politics.

ROOTERS

Some Republican congressional candidates are coming around to stronger advocacy of the president's cause. That is a sure sign his chances are picking up.

Senator Barbour of New Jersey is one who stuck all the way through. He opens every speech with the declaration: "I am for President Hoover." He gets a good hand on it.

Senate Leader Watson has begun to preach Hoover doctrines out in Indiana. He is standing strongly behind the president now.

COINCIDENCE

A splendid Republican tariff show is being put on by the customs commissioners here. Many minor industrial leaders are trooping in asking for anti-dumping orders to protect them from competition. Some have been issued for the manganese and steel people.

Most of the industries are very serious about the foreign importations of such things as rubber sole shoes and Christmas tree electric bulbs from Japan. However, one group let the cat out of the bag. They said they had been called and had no time to get up figures. They promised some later.

Of course no one would dare to think that the hearings are being held in conjunction with the presidential campaign. It just happened that way.

NOTES

Democrats are getting a little shaky about such rock-ribbed states as Maryland....It seems the Al Smith and Ritchie followers there are having a hard time swallowing Roosevelt....The managers promise everything will be all right by election day....That Al Smith speech in Newark ought to help in the east but it will do no good in the hinterland....The fact was published recently that Mr. Hoover saves cartoons from the newspapers....He also saves clippings of articles containing what he considers unfair things said about him....There is a new book out called "Not to be Repeated," supposed to be the inside on European capitals....It was written by American newspapermen in those capitals....The whippers are that the head of the American section of the foreign office Dieckhoff in Berlin may get the German ambassadorship here.

NEW YORK

RUMOR

The rumor that 35,000 voters in the Literary Digest poll had written in to request a switch of their votes from Roosevelt to Hoover has been traced to a market letter from a member house of the stock exchange. The Digest poll was made and bothered about it and had a bitter complaint to the stock exchange committee on business conduct.

The committee on business conduct is in a tight spot. It has no desire whatever to get mixed up in a political controversy but it can hardly fail to take some action without losing caste. The largest but any attempt to impose a severe penalty may start a young civil war. A private reprimand (with copy thereof to the Digest) will likely be the answer.

The astounding thing is that local Republican headquarters took the rumor quite seriously. The fact that exactly one change was received was a blow.

STOCK MARKET

There is a larger short interest in the stock market right now—in proportion to the floating supply but not in actual volume—than at almost any time since the depression began. This situation presents the possibility of a spectacular one or two day rise if anyone gets interested in driving the shorts to cover.

The recent falling off in market activity has put most of the brokerage houses back in the red. Nothing is likely to improve this situation before the election but there is still some hope among the "forgotten men" of Wall Street for a post-election revival.

EARNINGS

The third quarter earnings statements now being published have generally run close to expectations—which is why they apparently have had no effect on prices. There are a few exceptions. DuPont, Corn Products and Illinois Central showed somewhat better than expected; Westinghouse and General Motors somewhat worse.

LEGION

The American Legion is having a little internal trouble trying to figure out how to handle the bonus problem. The usual system is for the national commander to appoint a legislative committee to further the cause of legislation favored by the Legion at its convention. At present Commander Johnson is finding it no cinch to get responsible Legionnaires to accept legislative committee appointments. Those who would make desirable members seem to have no desire to carry the stigma which might go with public advocacy of the bonus payment.

Roosevelt committed a slight faux pas when he referred to himself as a member of three Legion posts. He undoubtedly acted in good faith but in point of fact he is not eligible for any but honorary membership under the Legion constitution, since he was not officially a member of the military or naval service. Newton Baker once turned down a proffered Legion membership for this reason.

HOOPER

The financial district's feelings toward Hoover are more kindly than they have been since the depression began. Even those who concede a Roosevelt victory are expressing belated appreciation of what the president has done to avert a panic. The opinion of a widely read financial service is characteristic. It says: "Had General Foch in the late summer of 1918 been relieved of his command, it would not have been a disaster, because his great genius had already achieved victory; and we feel the same way now in regard to President Hoover."

"PARIS LOVE" NEW REGISTER SERIAL

"Paris Love," a great and thrilling story that goes spinning and singing through many intriguing situations, will become another of The Register's features in the near future.

What men in the story by Nina Wilcox Putnam, famous authoress, and what women! It's about Sayers, who boosted her late husband's idle dream into $60,000,000 and then tried to find happiness in gold-plated kisses; Alacia, who lost her heart over a king without a throne, and many others are all tangled up in a series of events which come to a climax in Europe's most noted automobile race where death takes the wheel.

American business men, international gangsters, gigolos, famous racing drivers, leading jewelers, the Paris prefect of police and others have important parts in the story.

Watch for the first installment of "Paris Love" in The Register in the near future.

NEW ARTISTS WILL APPEAR ON BROADCAST

BILL, Bud and Slim, The Blue Ridge Mountaineers, will make their debut tonight over radio KREG when they present their initial program at 7:15. While this is the trio's first radio appearance they are well known to many Orange county people who have heard them playing at special events and private entertainments.

In a world full of Hill Billy entertainers it is refreshing to find a Hill Billy group that is a little different. The Blue Ridge Mountaineers are different. They specialize in the old favorite songs and sing them in a manner that brings a glow of memory to the hearts of many listeners on the sunset side of life.

This group of entertainers announces that all request numbers will be granted on the next program following the date of request. The group will be on the air each Tuesday and Saturday at the same time. Studio officials have announced that they will welcome constructive criticism of this program.

On the program following the Blue Ridge Mountaineers Jesse Crawford, Lew White and other nationally known organists will give a recital by means of electrical recording, starting at 7:30 p.m. The program will continue for a half hour and will be presented under sponsorship of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.

KREG NOTES

Why spend a lot of money and time on a trip to England when one can sit comfortably at home and listen to descriptive talks over the radio? Tune in on KREG tonight at 8:30 and listen to the travel talk on "The Delectable Dutchy." This is a beautiful descriptive picture of a beautiful country of England where "The Hammer, Hammer, Hammer of the Ors" leaves on the "ard lghway" can be heard.

P. P. Bilhorn, famous hymn writer and gospel singer will be featured at both services of Calvary church tomorrow. The subject of the morning sermon by the Rev. Frank E. Lindgren, pastor of the church will be "Peace and Unity." In the evening he will speak on "Sinners in Hiding."

The St. Louis Symphony orchestra will open the program of selected classics to be broadcast at 8 o'clock tonight. This group will play "Pina's Cave," overture. Other numbers on the program will include the "Pina's Cave" quartet playing "Irish Cradle Song" and "Negro Spirituals" and the San Francisco Symphony orchestra playing "Spanish Caprice" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

Children Grieve Over Loss of Pet

"Mickey," a four-months-old police dog is gone and three children in the home of Mrs. P. L. King, 502 South Broadway, are grieving.

The dog has been in the King family since he was three weeks old and was raised on a bottle. The pet disappeared several days ago when left alone in the yard for a short time. Mrs. King said that she is confident that the dog did not wander away and is making the plea that whoever has the family pet return him to his home

Huntington Beach	1	3	.250
Orange	1	3	.250
Newport Harbor	0	4	.000
Tustin	0	4	.000

NEXT FRIDAY'S SCHEDULE
Brea-Olinda at Orange; Newport Harbor at Anaheim; Huntington Beach at Tustin; San Juan Capistrano at Garden Grove.

"Young Dick" Glover's Anaheim juggernaut continues to rumble over all pretenders to the Orange league football throne. The Colonists were all alone on top of the standings today, with only Newport Harbor and Garden Grove barring their road to the title.

Anaheim all but clinched the championship by turning back Huntington Beach, 13-0, at Huntington Beach yesterday.

Glover's cohorts scored first in the first quarter after Homer Davis blocked a punt and Ray Brown recovered on the Orange 20-yard line. From there the Anaheim running attack functioned perfectly, Smith making the touchdown. Mott kicked goal.

Smith made another touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The lineup:

BREA-OLINDA WINS FROM TUSTIN, 13-6

"Shorty" Smith's Brea-Olinda Wildcats clawed and scratched Tustin's invading Farmers at Brea, 13-6.

The outcome was in doubt until the last few plays. The first touchdown was a thriller, made by Tustin in the second quarter, after an even first period. After a series of first downs, which carried the ball down to the Tustin 2-yard stripe, Bronner, substitute Tustin center, intercepted a short Brea pass and streaked down the field 98 yards to a touchdown with the whole Brea eleven following. McIntee failed to convert.

Brea-Olinda scored in the third period when a 30-yard run by Stewart placed the ball on the Tustin 8-yard mark. A pass, Ledbetter to Grant, was completed over the goal line. Ledbetter made the extra point on a line buck. The Wildcats' second touchdown was chalked up near the end of the game when a twisting, dodging, 60-yard run by Stewart, was stopped by "Tiny" Padua of the Tustin 1-foot line. Huddleston smashed over on the next play.

Ledbetter, on fullback, played an outstanding game both on offense and defense. He was the battering ram of the Green and Gold attack. McIntee played his usual superb game for the Farmers.

The lineup:
Tustin (6) L. Brown
McMichael L. Brown
Spangler L. Brown
De Brouwer L. Brown
Spray L. Brown
Smith L. Brown
Bell L. Brown

HAPES' LONG RUN BEATS NEWPORT HARBOR

Ray Hapes returned a punt approximately 90 yards to pay the way for Garden Grove's 7-0 victory over a scrappy Newport Harbor team at Harbor Heights.

Hapes caught the ball on his own 5-yard line and was not stopped until he reached Harbor's 5-yard mark. From there the Peppers bucked it across, Hodgson doing the ball-packing. Hapes added the extra point with an end run.

Neither side seriously threatened thereafter although Newport Harbor once surrendered the kickoff on downs on Garden Grove's 15-yard line.

BROWN ROOKIES MEET HANCOCK OILERS SUNDAY

The St. Louis Browns Juniors, "proving ground" for the American league club's rookies, invade Santa Ana tomorrow to play Carl Ruecker's strong Hancock Oil club at Santa Ana Airways park, West First street.

Carrying a roster of 20 players who hope to make the grade sooner or later with St. Louis, the Juniors will be slightly favored over the Santa Anans. Four of the "Little Brownies"—Chosen, Miles, Myatt and Johnson—already have been ordered to report in the spring to a St. Louis farm, Longview, Tex.

The Juniors' roster includes Bell, Mills, Johnson, Austin and Workman, pitchers; Chosen and Dexter, catchers; Myatt, Vasco, McGrath, Stockman, Garland, Baldo, Stubbfield, infielders, and Ograin, Gardner, Campbell, B. Hayes and D. Hayes, outfielders.

Hancock Oil will be out in full force. Joe Erwin, Rolland Shepherd and Joe Cornelius are available for mound work. Clarence Hapes will catch. Bill Sweet, Joe Koral, "Ten" Thelery and "Moose" Hill will operate in the infield. Levitt Daley, "Chisel" Hatfield and Fred Gunther in the outfield.

With games at Huntington Beach, Garden Grove and Santa Ana, the Orange County Winter league season officially opens Sunday. Hancock Oil No. 2 goes to Garden Grove, Laguna Beach to Huntington Beach and Irvine to Santa Ana.

These teams will play a four-quarter schedule, the first half ending January 1.

Mallett and Johnston will do the flinging for the Santa Ana Oilers. Melvin Beauty will catch. Veri Meyer, Foster Prather, "Babe" Gordon, Ralph Lindsay, Lloyd Kneeland, Bruce Harnois, Bob Wimbush and Fredricks will fill the other positions. "Bono" Koral is acting as manager.

Oregon State 20-9 Winner Over Army

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 29.—(UP)—Piling up a comfortable lead in the first half, Oregon State's second string defeated the West Coast Army football team, 20-9, here last night.

California's shooting season on ducks and geese, lasting two months, opens at noon next Tuesday, November 1.

State deputies will enforce federal regulations which designate a daily bag limit of 15 for all unprotected species of ducks. Of this number not more than 5 may be elder ducks and not more than 10 of each or in the aggregate may be bluebills, bluewing, greenwing and cinnamon teal.

The protection of a continuous closed season has been given to two other species of ducks—the ruddy duck and the buffleheads. The season is also open on band-tailed pigeons, with daily bag and possession of 10.

More basketball is promised at the Y. M. C. A. beginning next Saturday when the Santa Ana Hi-Y leagues start their season's schedule.

Four Senior Hi-Y teams will be represented, these being from the United Brethren, United Presbyterian, First Presbyterian and First M. E. churches. The line-ups are to be made up of young men under 18 who are regular members of the Sunday school they represent and who class as high school students.

The Junior Hi-Y league takes in boys under 16 who are in junior high school. Seven such teams have organized, coming from the South Methodist, Orange Avenue Christian, First Baptist, United Presbyterian, First Presbyterian, First Christian and Latter Day Saints churches.

Games will be played every Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A., each game being allotted 30 minutes. Thus it will be possible to play six games in an evening.

League registration is still open, but any additional teams desiring to enter will be required to make it known not later than Monday, when schedules will be drawn.

FIGHT MANAGERS DON'T TALK LIKE FOOTBALL COACHES

In their stubborn determination to guard against the deadly seed of overconfidence, American football coaches go to extreme lengths to keep their teams from being made pre-game favorites.

Lulling the opposition off guard with lugubrious chants is the national anthem.

This has spread to such an extent that it is now almost a mild form of insanity, but accepted as part of football hysteria.

Interviewed by a campus reporter for a campus publication, Coach "Tex" Oliver described Santa Ana's chances against San Diego something like this: "They may be too big and too tough for us. We haven't licked them down there for years. We'll do what we can, but the outlook isn't very favorable."

How different from some of the old Delhi boxing managers who have flicked cigar ashes on my desk in years gone by. Can you imagine one of 'em dealing out a fight talk like this:

"My boy hasn't a chance in the world. He'll be lucky to last a round. He can't give and he can't take it. He's in miserable condition, too. Just a bunch of palookas. We're being led to slaughter."

Early in the year I thought "Clippie" Smith, the Santa Clara coach, was going to introduce a new vogue. He amazed newspapermen by crisply predicting, under his own signature, that Santa Clara would lick California.

"We expect to beat California Saturday," he wrote. "We have the best team in the history of Santa Clara. It's just too bad for the Golden Bears."

But after this brilliant beginning, Smith retreated into the typical coaches' shell. Today I read that he fears St. Mary's has too much power for his Broncos.

For your information . . . Herb Dana, the best football official on the coast, is only 32. He played guard at Nebraska, went up against some of the men for whose teams he now coaches.

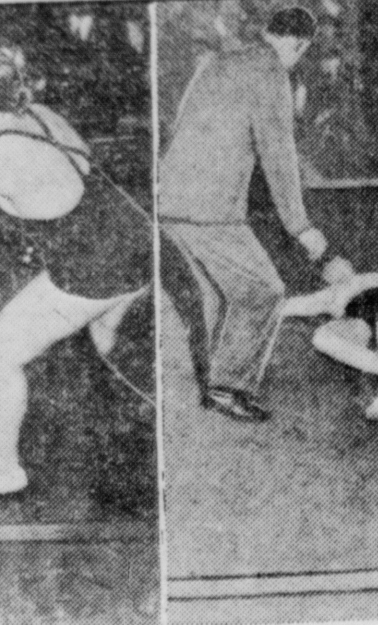

Walt Raitt's placekick from the 20-yard line in the last two minutes of play broke up one of the county season's major games between Fullerton and Orange. Fullerton winning, 22-19. The score was 19-19 before Raitt came through with his "pinch hit."

Two fumbled punts by Orange's safety, both recovered on the 15-yard mark, gave Fullerton touchdowns in the first quarter and the Indians added another in the third period on two passes, Raitt to Jewett. Orange marched 70 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter, blocked a punt for another in the third period and Harvey passed to Gunther for a third. McBride made the first two scores.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The San Francisco Dons arrived here today to find themselves the underdogs in the wagering on the outcome of their game with the Loyola Lions tomorrow at Wrigley field.

It was the first time in years Loyola has ruled a favorite to win the annual encounter. Loyola's strong showing against Southern California, who scored a solitary touchdown, has inspired the Lions and their followers to hope for victory.

Harry McCurdy, who quarterbacked the Carnegie Tech football teams of 1929 and 1930 and remained out of school during the 1931 season, is back to try to regain his old post on the Tartan team.

ST. MARY'S 2-1 FAVORITE OVER BRONCO ELEVEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—A last minute rush for tickets today made it appear probable that the traditional annual clash between the St. Mary's and Santa Clara in Kezar stadium here tomorrow would be played before a capacity crowd of 65,000.

Despite the fact most observers rate the coast's two leading Catholic school teams as evenly matched, the Gaels were quoted 2-1 betting favorites today.

The Broncos will have their full strength for the game, according to word from Coach "Clippie" Smith today. St. Mary's will not be so fortunate. Coach "Slip" Madigan announced. Five of his regulars probably will be on the sidelines with injuries and severe colds.

Not since 1923 have the Broncos defeated the Gaels. Several times since then they have been favored to win the bay region's annual "Little Big Game" but each time Madigan's stalwarts managed to pull out ahead by the time the final gun barked.

Peculiarly, the coaches of this region's two largest schools have taken opposing views on the probable winner. Coach Bill Ingram, whose California Golden Bears were beaten by Santa Clara and tied by St. Mary's, favors St. Mary's. Coach "Pop" Warner, whose Stanford Indians defeated Santa Clara, picked the Broncos to win.

Those who saw the M. E. South team—George Preble and Orville Schuchardt, forwards; Ted Cook, center; Lecl Slaback and Melvin Wiseman, guards—in action, marveled at the way in which the 1931-32 champions handled themselves. Passing rather than dribbling, and following their shots to the backboard, the South Methodists registered a 24-12 lead at the half, and maintained this margin throughout the next two periods.

Wiseman, guard, scored 18 points. Preble 8, Schuchardt and Cook 8 each. The scotch guarding of Slaback and Wiseman prevented the Measans from making set-ups, the long shooting of the visitors accounting for virtually all their 19 points.

Employing but four players, the First Baptists were snowed under, 23 to 7, in the first half by the Presbyterians, who carried their basket-hitting streak into the next periods and won easily, 47-21. L. Boyle, with 17 points, starred for the winners. Lockhart made 13 points, Merle Boyle 12.

DECIDE TITLES, TOMORROW IN SIX DIVISIONS

Championships in six divisions will be decided on the Frances Willard courts here tomorrow, fourth and final day of the first annual Santa Ana Open Tennis tournament.

Les Stoeffen, giant Los Angeles blond, a nationally ranked player who has beaten many of the world's finest courtmen at one time or another, is slightly favored to capture the men's singles, feature event of the competition. He bids for the crown at 1 p. m. Stoeffen is seeded No. 1.

Stoeffen will meet either the sensational young Glendale stylist, Gene Mako, now a freshman at the University of Southern California, or Elbert Lewis, former U. C. L. A. captain, seeded second. Mako is seeded third.

The Mako-Lewis struggle at 9:30 a. m. dominates the early morning schedule. The survivor goes to the post against Stoeffen in the afternoon finals.

Teamed with young Mako, Stoeffen is also favored to make away with the men's doubles championship which will be settled at 11 a. m. The Mako-Stoeffen tandem was expected to sweep through today's semi-finals and qualify for an 11 o'clock match in the morning with either Lewis Wetherell and A. C. Finster of Santa Ana or the Dausburg-Galt combine.

Ruby Bishop, Los Angeles, is conceded an edge in women's singles with major competition probable from Santa Ana's Mildred Ward. The feminine finals are scheduled at 12 o'clock. Josephine Cruickshank, the city's No. 1 player, did not enter singles. She has confined herself to mixed doubles in which she is an almost certain finalist, being teamed with Gene Mako. Miss Cruickshank and Mako are likely to oppose in the 2:30 finals the strong tandem of Stoeffen and Miss Bishop.

Sunday's schedule:
9:30 a. m.—Mako vs. Lewis.
Semi-final, men's singles and Bishop vs. Roquet. Semi-final women's singles.
11 a. m.—Finals men's doubles.
12 m.—Finals women's singles.
1 p. m.—Finals men's singles.
2:30 p. m.—Finals mixed doubles.

Verbal Tilt Enlivens Laguna Beach Chamber Session

VOTE OPPOSES OIL DRILLING ON TIDELANDS

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 29.—During a fiery speech in defense of the beaches at the Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce meeting last night, Ole Hanson, of San Clemente, demanded that a resolution be adopted asking the county grand jury to investigate the entire proceedings by which the city council of Huntington Beach leased tidelands "which they did not own," to the Pacific Exploration company. His verbal tilt with former Mayor Louis N. Wheaton, of Long Beach, grew so warm that it continued after the members of the chamber of commerce had voted unanimously to oppose Proposition No. 11 and citizens interfered, fearing a personal clash.

Previously, during the debate Wheaton had charged that he could bring a libel suit against Hanson "and make it stick."

Proponents for Proposition No. 11 were very few, and those members who sought to prevent a declaration for or against the measure faded out of the chamber before the vote was taken.

The meeting last night was a called meeting of the members to decide the question after the directors had held a hectic meeting a week ago, during which President Sumner Crosby resigned twice and again took the chair. At the first caucus of noses by Secretary A. Cavalli, there was not a quorum present and C. E. Burnes moved to adjourn. President Crosby refused to entertain the motion at the time. In a few minutes noses were counted again and a quorum was declared. There was a parliamentary tangle for the next five minutes, but finally the chair recognized Perry E. McCullough's motion that the body should not endorse or oppose any of the propositions on the ballot.

It was defeated and John Jehle moved that the chamber go on record against Proposition No. 11. Attorney Wheaton was the first speaker and repeated many of his arguments of a week ago. He said that since the last meeting he had been as far north as the Wood field and learned that there never had been any beach pollution from drilling on the northern beaches. He said the Standard Oil company has not polluted the beach by its drilling at Huntington Beach and asked that the people of Huntington Beach be granted the right to take oil from the tidelands. He said opposition to Proposition No. 11 came mainly from those who fear a precedent.

Ole Hanson introduced himself as president of the Save the Beaches league. He went into details of the 30-year lease between the city of Huntington Beach and the Pacific Exploration company. He declared that oil was not mentioned in the original bill put through the legislature and that through the legislature Governor Rolph asked if drilling was intended and being told that it was, voted it. He declared that the Pacific Exploration company "has no liabilities and no assets." He declared the lease was "illegal and void" because the city of Huntington Beach did not own the land and that the people of the state were being asked to make it legal by a constitutional amendment. He declared a deal had been made by the Exploration company, "which has no assets" to pay the expense of the campaign for the proposition and that $15,000 had been expended to put over the lease. He also charged the Gilmore and Hancock oil companies with spending huge sums in favor of the proposition.

Midnight Hallowe'en Show Tonight At West Coast

CABARET AND STAGE DANCE FEATURES SHOW

From inquiries being made at the Fox West Coast theater, tonight's big Hallowe'en show, slated for midnight, and immediately following the regular Saturday night performance. It was indicated today that Santa Ana would turn out en masse, to dance and enjoy a cabaret show and special features of the screen.

Announcement of the midnight show was made for the first time yesterday. Since then plans have gone ahead for a big entertainment, according to Eddie Graham, manager.

The West Coast theater orchestra will play from the pit while dancers use the stage as a ball room, but all this is to come after a special cabaret show has been staged, made up of all the actors and actresses on this week's regular vaudeville bill. The stage show will be entirely different from the regular vaudeville numbers and the screen attractions will be different from the regular Saturday night performances, it was said.

Special Hallowe'en features have been ordered for the midnight performance and spooks and witches and goblins are slated to run rampant through the house as soon as the midnight hour strikes.

Seats will not be placed on sale until after the second show, so those who come late will have ample opportunity to get seats wherever they choose.

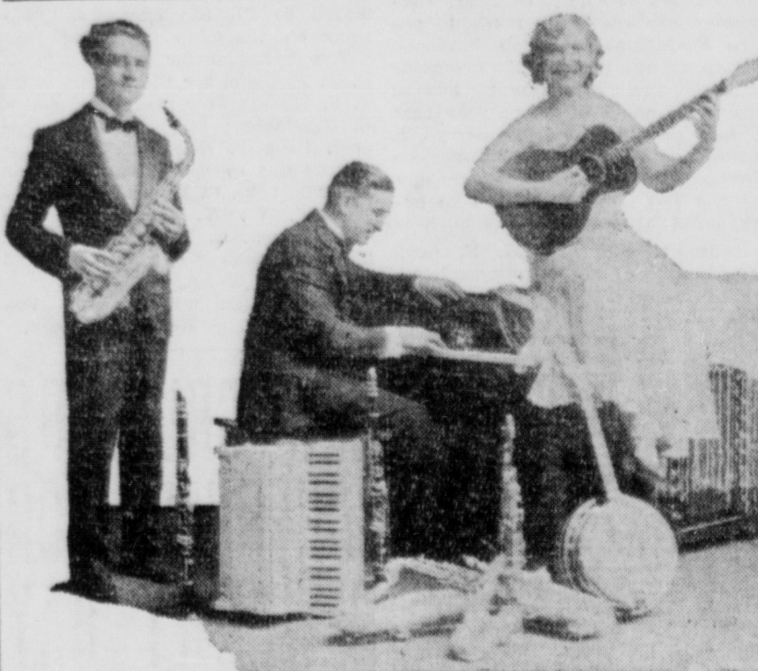

FILM BUDGETS IN RANGE FROM MILLION DOWN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29.—A million dollars—or fifteen thousand. Those are the two extremes in the budgeting of motion picture costs for the coming year. "Cavalade," the big special now being made by Fox, has a budget of a million dollars—which probably means it will cost more than that. "She Loved and Lost," an independent production, will cost $15,000.

Those figures seem to be indicative of the trend of film production for the coming year. The major studios are going in for big and expensive pictures. Because of the shortage of pictures, the independents are taking a chance on crashing the gate with films costing between $15,000 and $30,000.

HEADLINERS

The Betty Gordon Trio, headliners in the Fox West Coast theater vaudeville this week-end, which is one of the most pleasing acts seen at the theater in the past several months. This act is expected to be one of the best in the midnight show to be staged tonight in celebration of Hallowe'en.

WASHINGTON'S INSIDE LIFE IN NEW FILM

A motion picture such as Columbia's epic film of national politics, "Washington Merry-Go-Round," coming next Thursday to the Fox Broadway theater, is a direct reflection of the new standard of Americanism which has come into being during recent years of financial depression and hardship.

And it is this critical, stock-taking mood on the part of the great American public which has inspired the writing of such popular books as "Washington Merry-Go-Round," and "Mirrors of Washington" and the production of Columbia's picture, "Washington Merry-Go-Round," which was made from a story especially written by Maxwell Anderson, Jo Swerling and Eugene Thackeray.

The picture is strictly non-partisan. It takes no political sides. It favors neither party. The point it does get over, however, is that the people are the losers because of the system which makes many of our representatives in Washington self-seekers, rather than servants of their country.

The story of "Washington Merry-Go-Round" is that of a patriotic young congressman, played by Lee Tracy, who goes to the Capitol imbued with ideas of service, but finds his efforts futile against the barrier of political trading and manipulation and adverse influences.

If It's Speed Then Joan Has "It"

A few weeks ago Joan Crawford decided that she wanted her home decorated. The decision was made on Tuesday. Joan wanted the job finished by Saturday so that she and Doug, Jr., could throw a party. Fifty men went to work on day and night shifts. And the party came off as scheduled.

Anacostia Flats are shown in the picture, too, as well as real hotels and restaurants and office buildings in the Capitol.

Constance Cummings, who was seen recently in Harold Lloyd's "Movie Crazy," in "American Madness," "Attorney for the Defense" and other pictures, is the heroine, having the part of a senator's daughter, politically and socially enlightened on Washington, who takes the young congressman in tow.

Others in the splendid cast are Walter Connolly, Alan Dinehart, Arthur Vinton, Clarence Muse, Frank Sheridan, Arthur Hoyt, Wallis Clark, Samuel Godfrey and Ernie Woods.

"OPENINGS" HIGH FOR ENGLISH FILMS

The English may have to take lessons from Hollywood when it comes to making pictures. But it looks as though Hollywood has a few things to learn about premieres. According to word just received from London, seats sold as high as $250 for the opening of Corinne Griffith's new English film, "Lily Christine."

The premiere was under the auspices of the Prince of Wales and the proceeds were donated to charity. Sort of puts our five and ten-dollar openings back in the shade, doesn't it?

UNIQUE FILM AT WEST COAST STARTS MONDAY

"Night After Night," a story which ran in the Saturday Evening Post recently and which proved such a sensation that it was immediately bought for screen purposes, will be the attraction at the Fox West Coast theater starting Monday.

Starring Mae West and George Raft, of stage fame, together with Wynn Gibson, Constance Cummings and Alison Skipworth, the picture is a replica of the story in the Post, written by Louis Bloomfield.

It is a new drama of No. 55 Park avenue—ablaze with life and mystery, the story of a house and its residents, all on the ragged edge of the law, people who live, laugh and many times laugh too quickly. It is a story that will appeal even to the most particular.

COURT BATTLE LOOMS: CAGNEY MAKES RETURN

With Jimmy Cagney back in Hollywood, it looks as though a nice court battle is looming. Jimmy claims he is free of his Warner contract now and stands ready to sign with any other studio. But Warners have a different feeling. They claim Cagney hasn't fulfilled his contract with them. And studio execs who would like to have Cagney numbered among their players are awaiting the outcome before taking any action.

"Here he comes, there he goes," is getting to be the favorite description of Douglas Fairbanks. Doug no sooner gets back from one of his trips than he is off again on another one. He sailed again the other day with the Orient as his destination. And this voyage is more or less a vacation. He's taking a camera along but has no idea of making a picture. When the "Wild Horse Stampede" company left for the Navajo Indian reservation in Arizona to film exterior scenes, the studio had to post a $5000 bond with the government as security that nobody in the company would take a drop of liquor into the reservation. And this in a DRY nation.

GRETA GARBO WILL PLAY QUEEN ROLE

Now it's to be Queen Garbo—at least for a few weeks. Yep, you guessed it. The Swedish star is to portray a queen in her next film. From what we can gather around the studio, she will be back here sometime in October to start work. Bess Meredith already is whipping the story into shape. The picture carries the tentative title of "Christina."

NEWS FLASHES FROM STARS

Mary Boland, Broadway star, is in town for a picture—and might stay if invited. Helen Hayes is only five feet tall. Clark Gable autographed a lady's hat the other day. And then apologized for spoiling it. Glen Tryon has a new gag. He will walk into a friend's house, spend 15 minutes talking in sign language and then leave without ever saying a word. And Jimmy Durante tries to talk like a well-trained butler when he answers his phone.

The submarine used in "Devil and the Deep" is a composite of the undercraft of several nations. Government restrictions forbid the duplication of a submarine. Ferdinand Schumann-Heyink, son of the noted singer, now is working in his third picture. And most of Hollywood still is unaware of his presence here. Vivian Tobin, sister of Genevieve, also is trying the movie racket.

JEAN HARLOW, CLARK GABLE AT BROADWAY

Clark Gable and Jean Harlow, platinum blonde charmer of the screen, are seen together for the second time in their careers in "Red Dust," a sensuous drama of Indo-China, which heads the program at the Fox Broadway theater for the next four days.

Miss Harlow played opposite Gable in one of his first important pictures, "The Secret Six." Since then, both have been catapulted to major fame. She recently changed the color of her tresses for "The Red Headed Woman," and Gable scored an outstanding hit in "Strange Interlude."

Acid Process Shown
A complete rubber factory was erected as part of the authentic background, this setting requiring gallons of raw rubber sap, imported in sealed cans from Africa and South America. The actual process of concealing the rubber with acetic acid is shown before the camera.

FANS TO GREET MAE CLARK ON RETURN SOON

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29.—Meet the new Mae Clark. Of course you're familiar with the name. And once you were familiar with the girl to whom it belonged. But that was before she became ill several months ago. You wouldn't recognize her now.

While we don't often look upon illness as something to be desired, it probably was the best thing which ever happened to Mae. She's fully recovered now and is healthier than ever. In addition, her eyes sparkle and she smiles most of the time, whereas she used to have one of those solemn faces. And her long curly tresses have given way to an extremely short boyish bob.

Being confined to her bed for nearly five months gave Mae plenty of chance to examine herself, determine what was wrong and remedy it. That's just what she did, too.

Most of her spare moments in those days E. I. (before illness) were spent worrying about the future. That doesn't go any more. The future can take care of itself.

Mae is living for today—enjoying it, too. And if you ask me, this new Mae will go even farther in pictures than the old one did. Let's watch and see.

"cine" but that probably will be changed. It's laid in the 17th century, too.

COMING TO BROADWAY

Jean Harlow, who has the principal role in the dynamic film "Red Dust," which comes to the Fox Broadway theater Sunday. She plays opposite Clark Gable in the new film.

BARRYMORE AND BILLIE BURKE IN BIG FILM

As a special inducement in celebration of Hallowe'en a big preview of a new picture will be shown at the Fox Broadway theater tonight, in connection with the regular program, which is John Barrymore's "A Bill of Divorcement."

The preview will start about 8:30 p. m.

Arrangement for the preview were made yesterday, and while the name of the picture can not be divulged, the management stated today that it truly was a big picture with several well known stars.

Billie Burke has been a glamorous name, a figure of the Broadway stage about whom were woven legends that have colored theatrical history.

It is a strongly dramatic story which serves as the vehicle in which the star makes her return to pictures. As Margaret Fairfield in "A Bill of Divorcement," Miss Burke plays a woman caught in the tie of a disastrous first marriage just as she was finding second love. All the rich experience of her stage training is called on in this appealing part.

In the starring part John Barrymore has one of the most forceful roles of his varied career. As a shell-shocked English veteran who returns home to find the world has moved on, leaving no place for his unhappy soul to find anchor, Barrymore proves without question his right to the title of America's foremost actor.

Katherine Hepburn, a powerful Broadway favorite, is seen in the romantic role of Sydney Fairfield, the same which served on the stage to zoom Katherine Cornell to stardom. In this girl RKO-Radio Pictures has uncovered one of the most gifted emotional actresses on the screen.

David Manners, Henry Stephenson, Elizabeth Patterson and Gayle Evers, round out an exceptionally brilliant cast. George Cuker directed.

HEAVIEST PRO GRIDDER

Weighing 275 pounds, Harold Ely, tackle on the Chicago Bears professional eleven, and formerly of the University of Iowa, is said to be the heaviest gridder in the professional ranks.

Zhyzko; and such noted newspaper sports writers as Grantland Rice, Jack Laft, Damon Runyon, Ed. W. Smith, Westbrook Pegler and Paul Gallico. Jack Kearns and Teddy Hayes are also in the line. Billy Papke, and Stanislaw cast.

Speeches Of Candidates Ordered Cut

Santa Anans may like their politics, but it won't do them any good at the Fox Broadway theater from now on, so far as political speeches are concerned in the news reels.

Manager Les Fountain, who may be a Democrat or a Republican, is sick and tired of all the "blah, blah" he hears from the presidential candidates on the screen in news reels, so, according to an announcement he made today, there will be no more pictures in the news reels of Hoover reading his speeches, or the winsome smile of Franklin Roosevelt.

"The people ought to know who they are going to vote for any way by this time," he said. "So there is no use listening to a long tirade about how high the tariff ought to be or whether this country can come out of the depression by returning beer," he said.

NEW SUCCESSOR TO WALLACE REVEALED

Now we have a new candidate for the honors held for so long by Edgar Wallace, probably the most prolific of all writers. Leon Gordon, who earns his living as a film writer, has gotten into the habit of picking up a few spare dollars now and then by knocking out plays in his spare time.

He wrote "White Cargo" in five days, "The Piker" in 26 hours, "The Poppy God" in one week and now has just completed "Undesirable Lady" which took him four whole days.

JACK OAKIE IN SPLENDID FILM AT WEST COAST

"Madison Square Garden," a rapid-moving drama set against the kaleidoscopic background of New York's famed center of political, social and athletic life, shows today and tomorrow at the Fox West Coast theater, where it will open. Jack Oakie, Thomas Meighan, Marian Nixon, Warren Hymer, William Collier, sr., William Boyd and ZaSu Pitts head the cast.

The vivid panoramic view of the Garden's ever-changing activities is held together by the story of a manager who brings two proteges to New York and "The Garden," their meeting with two girl telegraph operators, and their adoption of themselves to the new life. Collier plays the role of the manager; Hymer and Oakie are his proteges; Miss Nixon and Miss Pitts are the girls.

In addition to the screen luminaries, the cast of the picture includes such old-time sports favorites as Jack Johnson, Tom Sharkey, Tommy Ryan, Mike Donlin, Billy Papke, and Stanislaw cast.
